SUBJECTReview for the educational program in the specialty 242 "Tourism" of National University "Yuri Kondratyuk Poltava Polytechnic"

The educational program in the specialty "Tourism" for the preparation of applicants for higher education at the first (bachelor's) level is characterized by relevance, expediency and applied orientation.

The peer-reviewed educational program was prepared by the scientific and pedagogical staff of the Department of International Economic Relations and Tourism of the Educational and Research Institute of Finance, Economics, Management and Law of the National University "Yuri Kondratyuk Poltava Polytechnic is aimed at the formation of such important learning outcomes as creative thinking ability to respond quickly for changes and efficiently solve the assigned tasks.

At the heart of the educational and professional program, general and professional competencies that are determined are most consistent with the proposed program. Competencies have a practical direction and can be used in the professional activities of future professionals. The curriculum for training of first-level students fully meets the objectives of the educational and professional program. The sequence of studying disciplines, the list and volume of compulsory and selective disciplines correspond to the structural and logical sphere of training in the specialty "Tourism" and contribute to ensuring that the programmatic learning outcomes correspond to the requests of stakeholders.

As a result, we claim that the educational and professional training program in the specialty "Tourism" is recommended for implementation.
